

WORKFORCE DEVELOPMENT

RIFLI ESL for Business Owners

An educational program of Providence Public Library

Free special English classes to help you start, grow and market your business!

Online, Saturdays
10 am - 12:30 pm
Classes run
October 2 —
December 18

This class aims to support adult immigrants who own their own business or are interested in starting one!

For students at the intermediate or advanced level of English.

In this class, you will:

- ◆ Learn to communicate about topics such as management, finance and marketing and learn the necessary language structures to run a meeting, achieve sales, and negotiate business transactions.
- ◆ Develop grammar, vocabulary and idiomatic expression to communicate effectively with customers.
- ◆ Develop a needs assessment and create a business plan
- ◆ Make contacts with local business organizations to help students network and have a greater understanding of U.S.-based business practice.

Funding provided by Google and American Library Association's Libraries Build Business program.
